

these "tours" inflict noise, danger and pollution into our national parks. I favor banning them completely. The gasoline affects the air/water/soil/wildlife/birds in the park. the pilots can be drunk or on drugs and the plane itself can be badly maintained. The noise is intolerable. I think this trend has accelerated far beyond any value it had in the beginning. We need to ban these flights in the lake mead area.